

Use Case 1: log in to the system

Enter password and click login

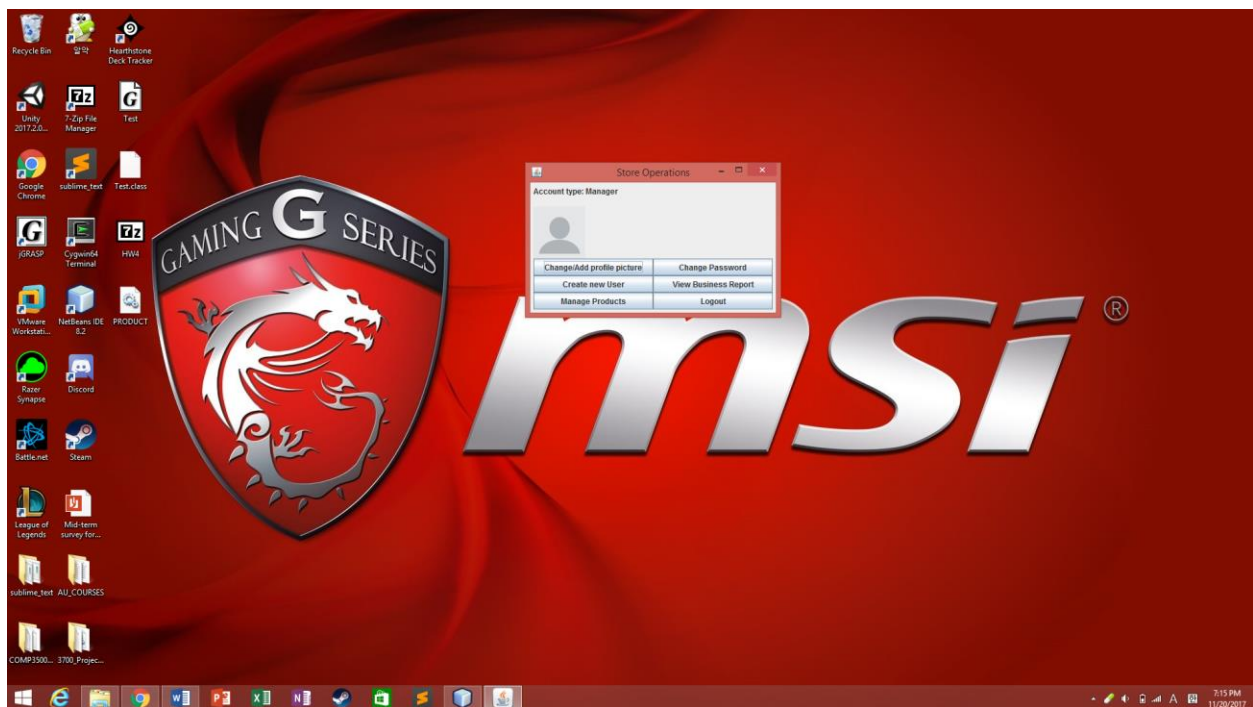

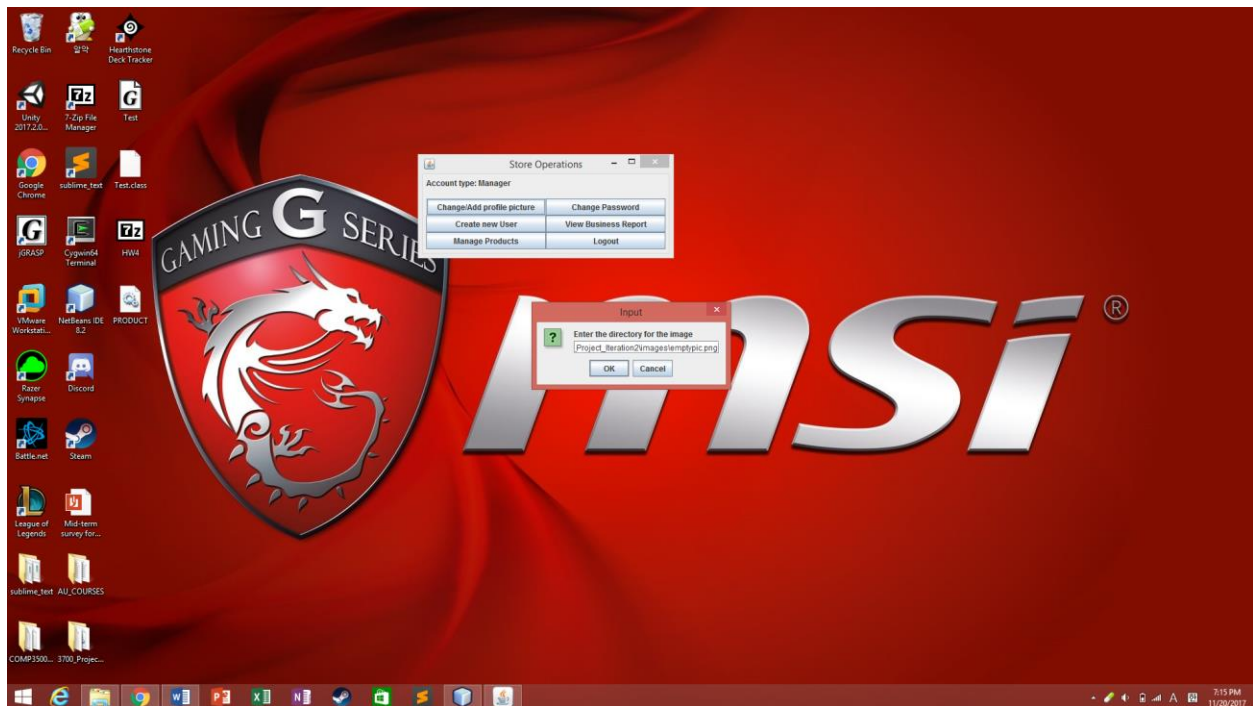

Use case 2: change password

In the menu, click change password and input new password and click ok

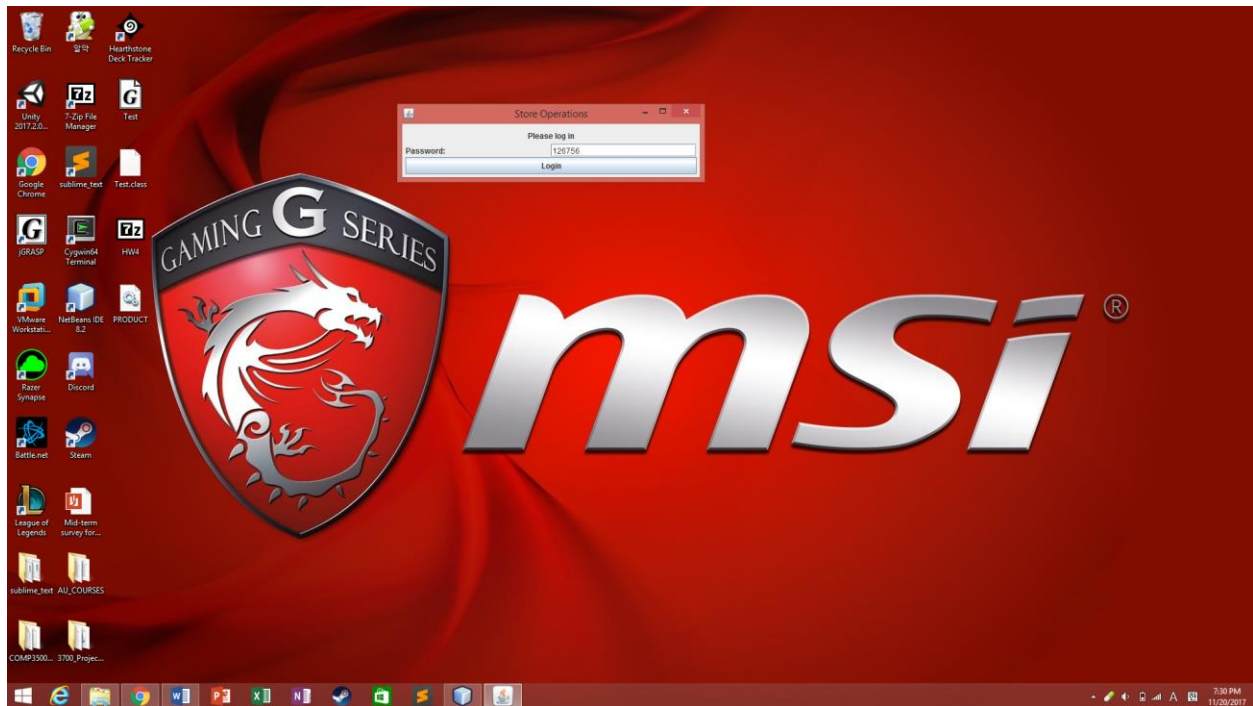

Use case 3: change photo

In the menu, click Add/change profile picture and enter exact address of the picture you wish to change/add. (Must include the format. Ex: .../.../picture.pdf)

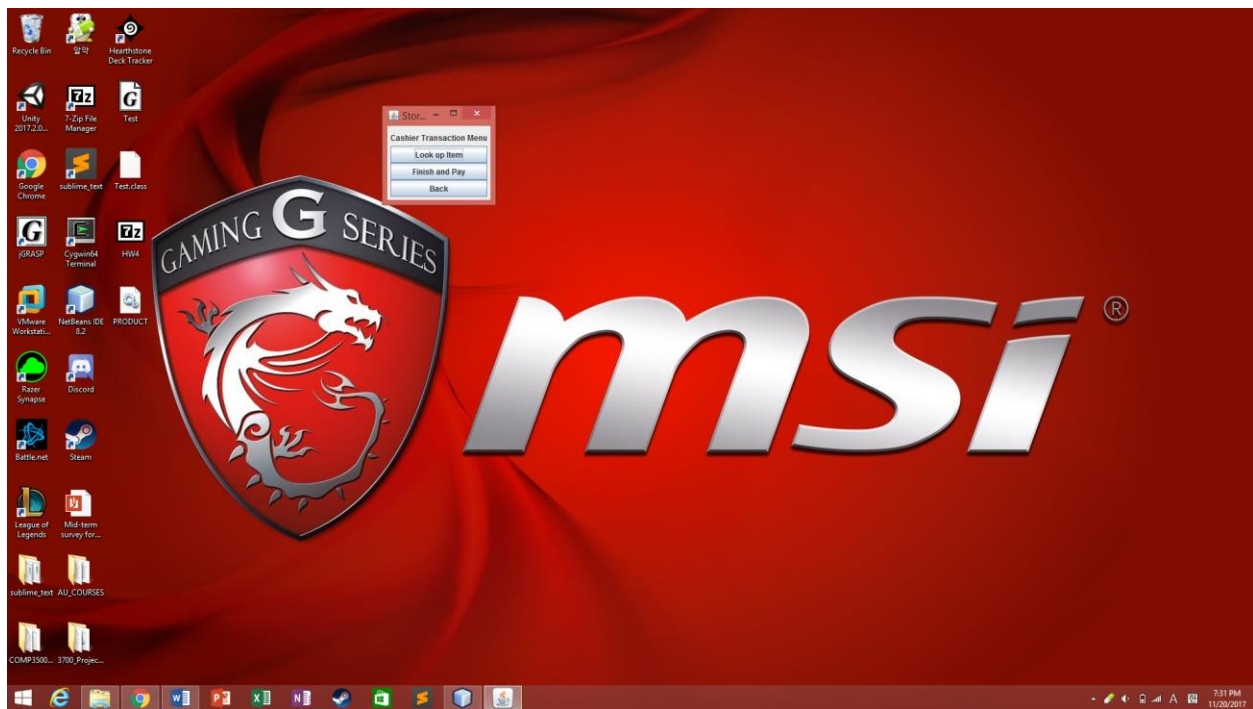

Use case 4: As a cashier, check out an order

First login as a cashier

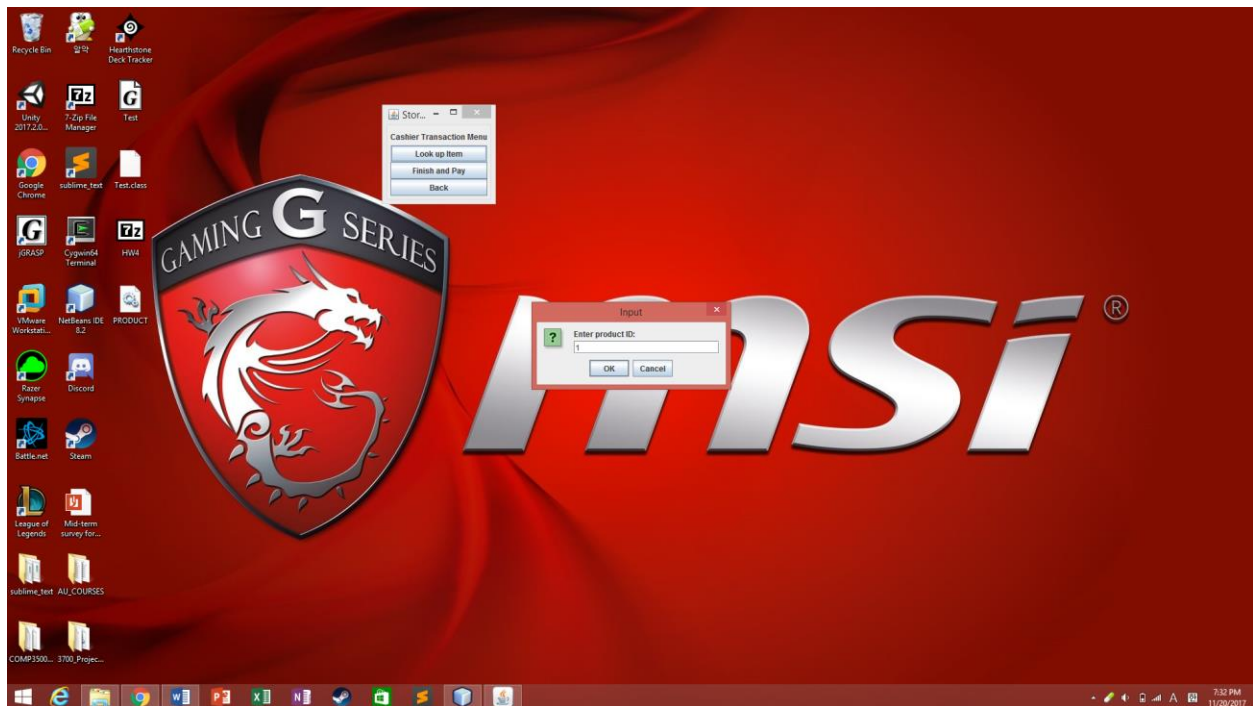

Then, click on transaction button in cashier menu

Then, click on look up item button and enter the id number of the product you wish to buy.

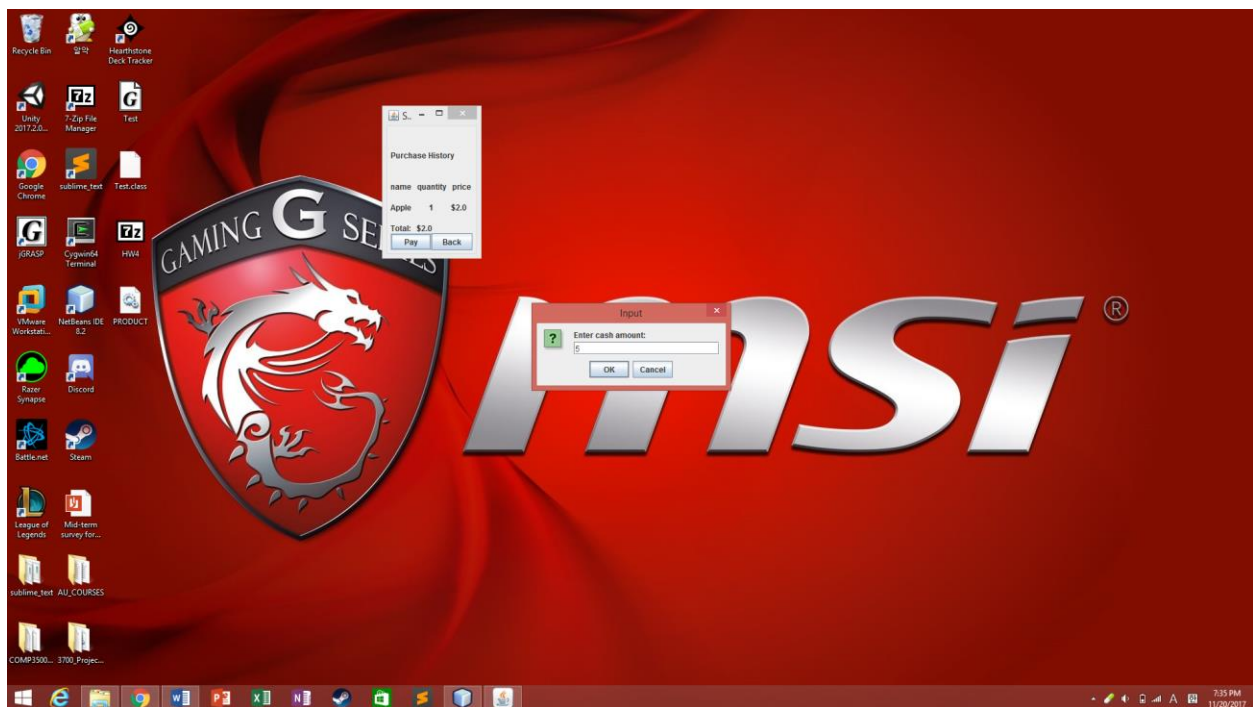

Then, click finish and pay button.

For payment type: cash , click cash button

Click pay button and enter amount of cash

Then, the receipt is shown.

For payment type: card, press card button

Press pay button. Then, the receipt is shown.

Use case 5: as a manager, add a product

In the manager's menu, click on manage products button.

Enter the fields with appropriate information and click add product button

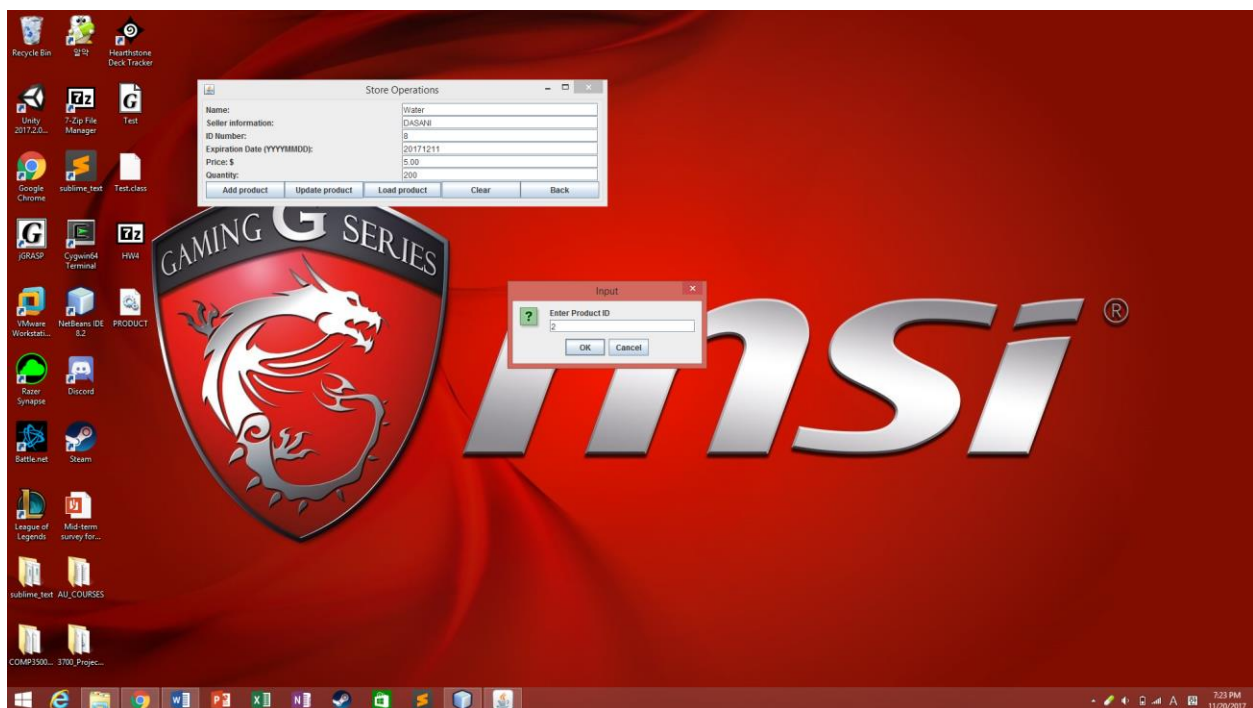

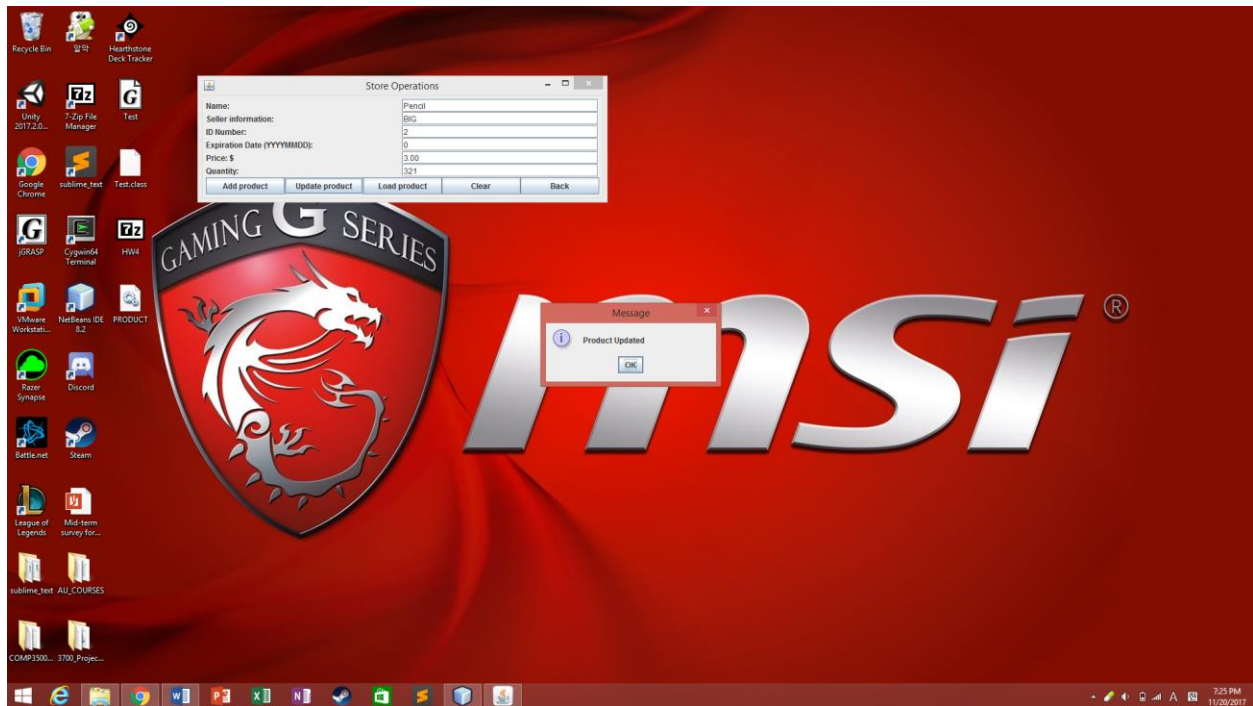

Use case 6: As a manger, update a product

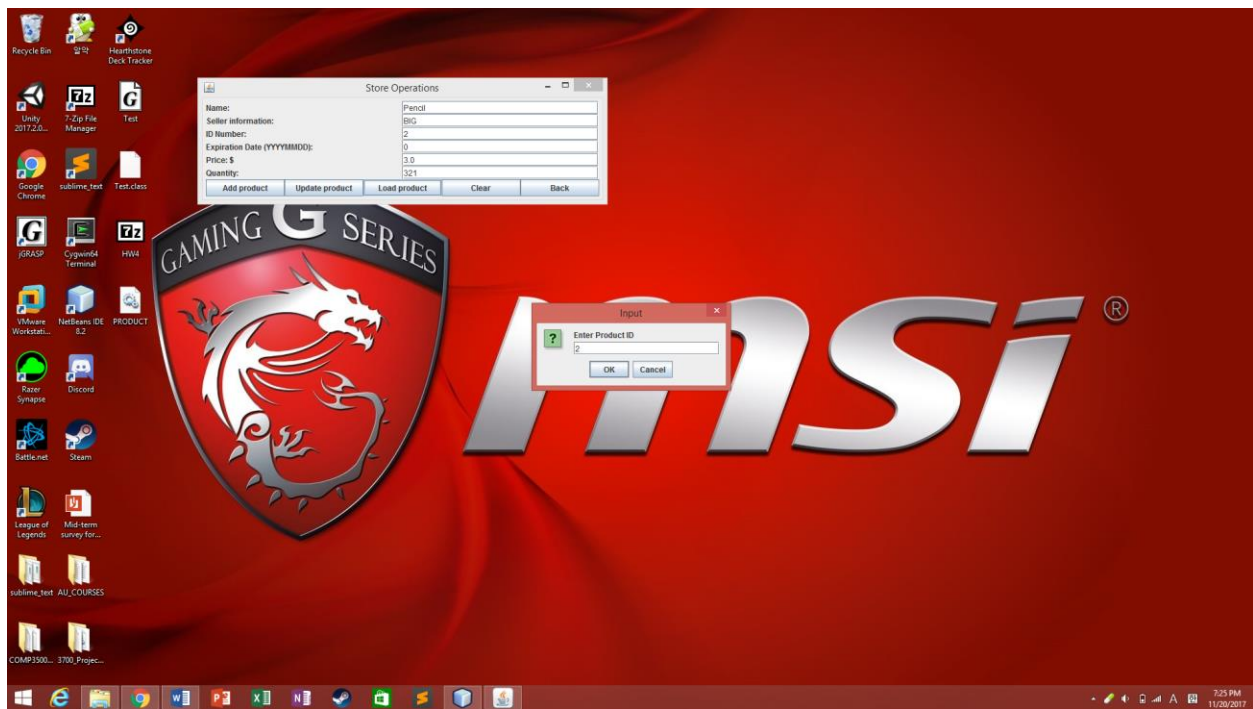

First load a product by searching the product with the id number

Then, change the information of the product, then click update button.

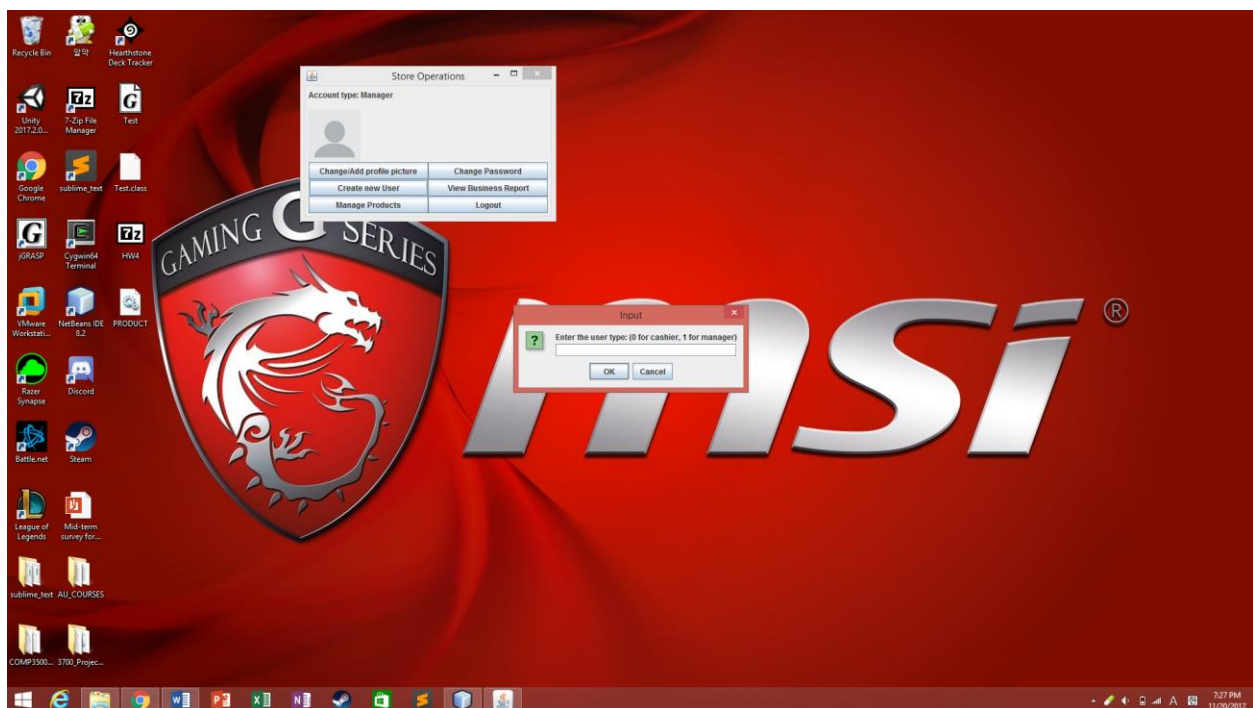

You can check it's updated by loading the product again.

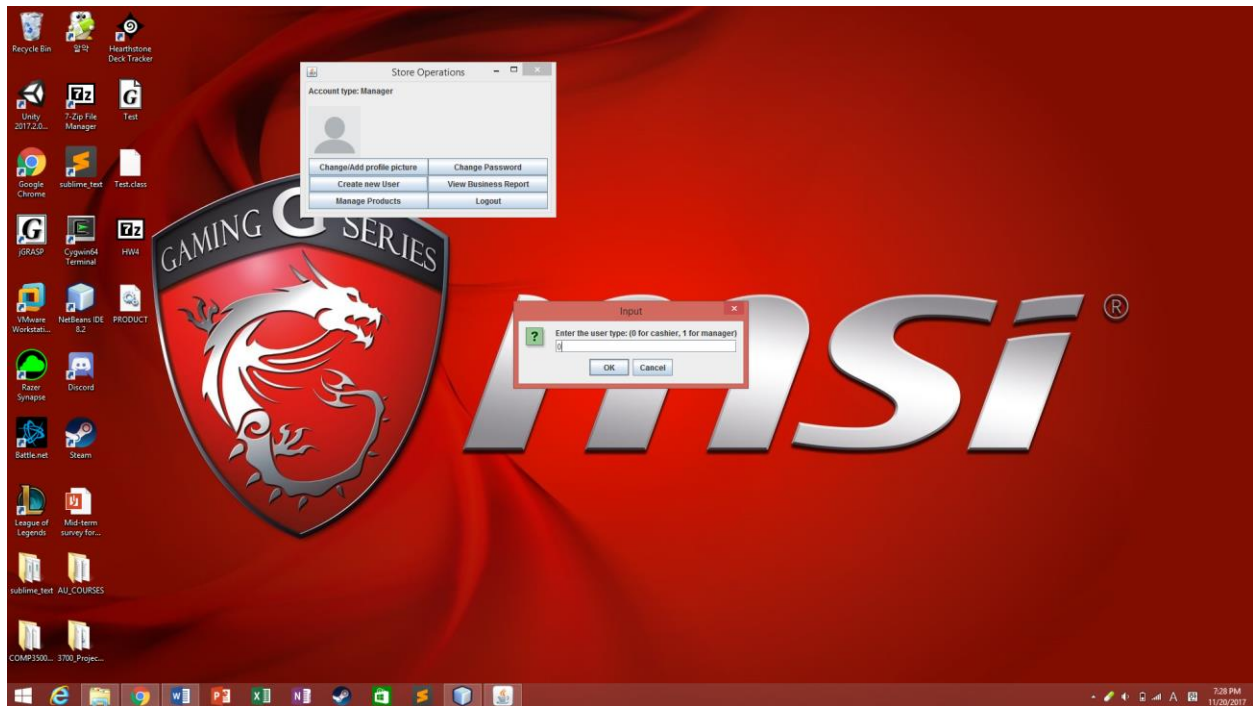

Use case 7: as a manager, add a user, assign role, and generate default password

In the manager menu, click on create new user button.

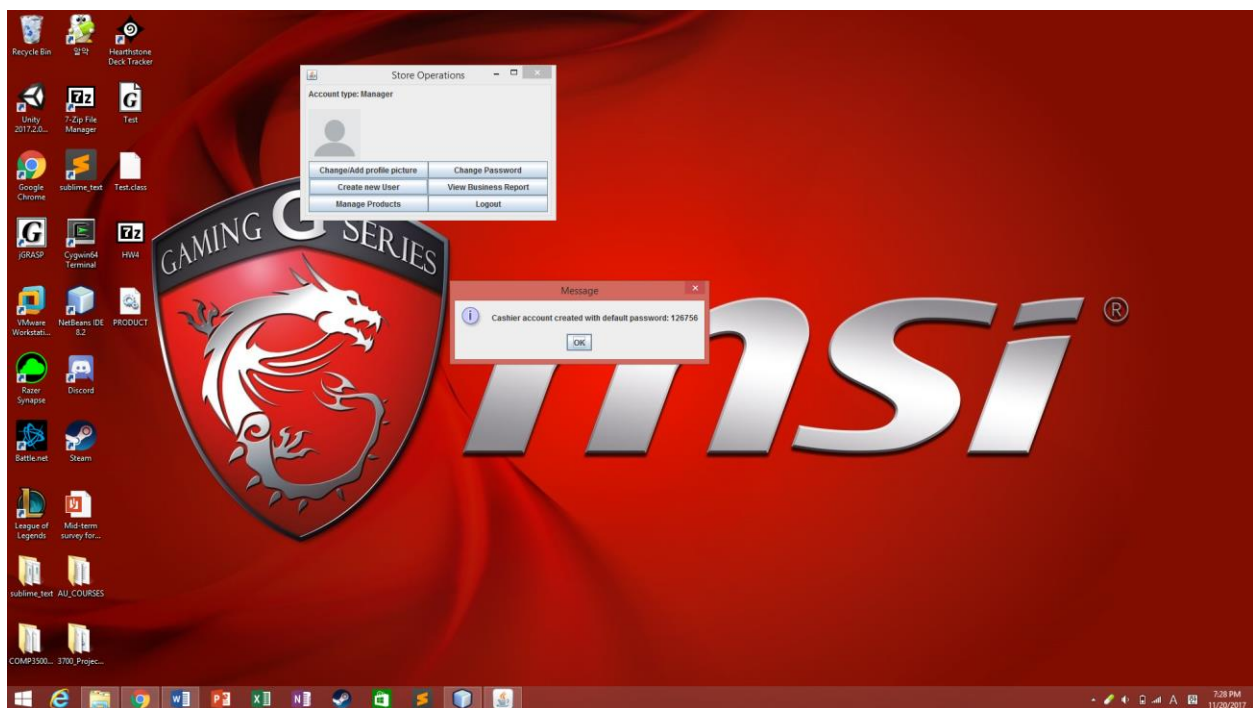

Assign the user a role by entering the appropriate number.

Press ok.

Default password was generated along with the account.

Use case 8: as a manger, view business report

Click view business report button in manager menu.

Then, the business report shows up

